

AMS Graduate Student Chapters Planning a Chapter Meeting 101

1) Leadership must determine the answers to the following questions:

- a. What is the idea or goal of this event? For example:
  - i. A single presentation on a specific topic
  - ii. A panel of speakers discussing a specific topic
  - iii. A workshop
  - iv. Chapter social event to increase member participation and leadership development: show a movie, appetizers at a local restaurant, etc.
- b. What is needed/expected for this event? For example:
  - i. X amount of attendees
  - ii. Speaker(s)
  - iii. Venue for X amount of attendees
  - iv. Audio visual (AV)
  - v. Food/beverage
  - vi. Marketing materials
  - vii. Additional sources of funding
- c. What is the budget of this event?
- d. 2-3 dates and times for the event that provide 1-2 months lead time. (Monday-Thursdays generally work best for on-campus events as attendees are most likely already on-campus. Weekends might be difficult, but could be considered depending on the event's goal.)

2) Assign tasks to leadership and/or volunteer members:

- a. Determine speaker(s) availability if applicable. Confirm their:
  - i. Full name as they wish it to read on the invitation
  - ii. AV needs
  - iii. Presentation title
  - iv. Possibly three presentation objectives to help market the presentation
  - v. Possibly obtain a professional portrait for the invitation
- b. Determine venue availability
  - i. Auditoriums, classrooms, theaters, off-campus venue, etc.
  - ii. Personnel requirements?
- c. Create an invitation that includes:
  - i. Date
  - ii. Agenda (start time for: reception, presentation, Q&A, as well as the anticipated end time)
  - iii. Venue
  - iv. Speaker's full name as they wish it to read on the invitation
  - v. Speaker's presentation title
  - vi. Presentation objectives/goals
  - vii. Will there be light fare and beverages?

- d. Begin requesting additional funding as applicable
- e. Publicize the event at least 3 weeks in advance:
  - i. Flyers: classrooms, common areas, dorms, dining facilities, common walkways, etc.
  - ii. Social media: Personal and the AMS Graduate Student Chapter Private Group Facebook pages, Twitter, etc.
  - iii. Chapter Website
  - iv. AMS Graduate Student Chapter Newsletter
  - v. E-mail notices: include professors who might remind students
  - vi. Flyers passed out to classes which specifically relate to the topic of the event
  - vii. Writing on classroom chalkboards or whiteboards about the event
- f. Stay in touch with speaker(s) as applicable:
  - i. Share flyer
  - ii. Check in about any changes in needs 1 week and 1 day before the event
  - iii. Ask that they arrive 30 minutes before event to ensure all AV is working properly
- g. Host the event:
  - i. Assignments for (as applicable):
    1. Set up the venue: seating, tables and food/beverages
    2. Set up AV
    3. Greet speaker(s) and prepare their AV needs
    4. Greet attendees (sign-in sheets for collecting possible new member names and emails? Name tags? Handouts?)
    5. Take pictures and/or videos of the event for Chapter website/Facebook or AMS newsletter/Facebook/YouTube/Twitter/Notices
    6. Introduce the speaker(s)
    7. Encourage Q&A
    8. Thank attendees for coming
- h. Follow up on the event:
  - i. Email attendees thanking them again for attending, sharing links to images, asking for feedback and request suggestions for future topics/events
  - ii. Share the event pictures and/or videos with AMS via the AMS Membership Department at: membership@ams.org
